

NEW MEDIA QUOTES --- FOR GREG STEPHENS "I DON'T KNOW" CD

"Gathering up his folk, blues, country, and rock influences, Stephens and his solid backing band offer this collection of down-home cooked, often twang-tinged songs... Stephens, who sounds like a smooth-voiced John Mellencamp, has a simple honesty in his lyrics and musical approach that is both alluring and endearing. Simply put, he strives to be and is believable..."

"I DON'T KNOW is a moody listen, that's been kicked up by top-notch musicianship and first-rate songwriting...it all comes to a head on the gloriously haunting, "Dark Side Of You"...a frantic walk through the dark alley ways of some God-forsaken town right out of a Jerry Rafferty song."

"Really like Greg's warm and soulful sound....he's also a fun guy to be around. His songs are written straight from the heart and are as genuine and timeless as a starry night out in the desert. His live sets only serve to demonstrate his brilliance, more than living up to the studio recordings."
